

DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE
AIR EDUCATION AND TRAINING COMMAND

14 May 2025

MEMORANDUM FOR Incoming Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC) Cadets

FROM: AFROTC Detachment 805 Commander
1227 TAMU, Military Sciences Building
College Station, TX 77843

SUBJECT: Welcome

1. Welcome to Texas A&M University and AFROTC Detachment 805! Congratulations on your decision to attend Texas A&M and selection into the Corps of Cadets. You have joined one of the oldest and the largest AFROTC detachment in the nation. We offer a unique environment, combining advantages of military academy-type rigor with the Corps of Cadets and benefits of a top academic university education. Our challenging program is designed to mold you into a top-notch officer for the greatest Air Force and Space Force in the world.
2. Prior to your New Student Conference, please review all in-processing information on our website and complete all online enrollments; it will assist in your transition to Texas A&M, AFROTC, and the Corps of Cadets. Your New Student Conference and arrival this fall mark the beginning of an exciting phase in your life, and coming prepared will help get it started off right.
3. We look forward to meeting you! For any questions regarding AFROTC, please contact our recruiting office at det805-recruiting@corps.tamu.edu. For any questions regarding inbound cadet requirements, please go to afrotc.tamu.edu/inbound-cadets/.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "K-L-P", is positioned above the typed name.

KEVIN L. PARKER, Colonel, USAF
Commander, AFROTC Det 805